

VOTE FOR Thomas K. D. Maddison Republican Nominee for County Clerk

This office requires the services of a lawyer, as its duties embrace those now performed by the Probate Clerk and those of the Clerk of the District Court.

BOTH RODGERS AND PHOTOGRAPHS OF FOWLER SOARING OVER ARIZONA

Coast to Coast Aviators Are Both Making Good Progress. Large Crowds Watch Exhibitions of Flying.

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire)
Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Aviator Rodgers arrived in Phoenix at 10:30 a.m. today this morning, having made the trip from Maricopa, by the way of Tempe, a total distance of 32 miles, in 45 minutes.

Watched by a large crowd, Rodgers passed over the city looking for a good landing place, which he finally found at the fair grounds. He expected to leave early this afternoon for Yuma, more than 200 miles from here, where he hoped to stay before night.

Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Aviator Foster expects to resume his transcontinental flight from this city at 1:30 this afternoon. He will stop at Benson, Lordsburg, Deming and El Paso.

Woman's Club.

Theregular business and social session of the Woman's club tomorrow afternoon will be more receptive in nature than formal or businesslike. All members are expected to bring their needlework and occupy themselves with the fanciful creations for the Yuletide gifts to personal friends, the while a miscellaneous musical program and gay converse will tend to make the afternoon highly entertaining as well as profitable.

CASIMIRO BARELA SAYS NORTHERN NEW MEXICO IS SOLID

Famous State Senator From Colorado, Said to Entertain Senatorial Ambitions. Here Last Night and Today.

HIS SON-IN-LAW TO SPEAK HERE TONIGHT

Casimiro Barela, state senator for the Trinidad district of Colorado, spent last night in this city on his way from northern to southern New Mexico. While here he discussed the political outlook in northern New Mexico, where he has been for several days in terms that are very optimistic for the Republicans.

Northern New Mexico is solid for the Republicans, he said. There is no doubt whatever that the entire northern portion will go for Bursum, I believe also that a great many votes will come to him from districts ordinarily thought to be Democratic.

also think that many will come to Mr. Bursum from pure personal friendship, or from respect and admiration, from people whom he did not think would vote for him.

Mr. Barela refused to discuss the political situation in Colorado at any great length, but said that Colorado was all for Tait, and would be for him next November.

Senator Barela is said to be one of the men responsible for the legislative deadlock in Colorado last fall at the time of the failure of an election of a United States senator. He is one of the foremost figures in Colorado politics, and a very forceful man.

His son-in-law, Eliseo Chacon of Trinidad, will speak here tonight.

Mr. Chacon left this morning for Soco county. He said he did not consider his efforts there to be necessary at all, as he believed that county would do all honor to its distinguished son, who heads the Republican ticket, by giving him an almost unanimous endorsement for governor.

It is the best picture ever made of the first Republican in New Mexico and the state's next governor.

BURSUM HERE FOR BIG MEETING TONIGHT

Republican Candidate for Governor Nears End of Whirlwind Campaign Feeling Like a "Fighting Cock."

ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION FOR WINNING CANDIDATE

"I have practically finished my campaign throughout New Mexico," said H. O. Bursum, Republican candidate for governor, at the Alvarado hotel this morning. "I have been in almost every county and have met the people in practically every town. I believe, from the receptions I have had and the people I have met, that the Republican ticket will be elected by a majority which will exceed the best hopes of our party leaders.

"Northern New Mexico is solid for the Republicans," he said. "There is no doubt whatever that the entire northern portion will go for Bursum. I believe also that a great many votes will come to him from districts ordinarily thought to be Democratic.

The Markets

STOCK OF RAILROADS SHOWS STRENGTH ALL ADVANCING STEADILY

Demand Continuous and Well Diversified. Although Buying Is Not as Active as That of Yesterday.

MUCH STEEL STOCK IS SOLD IN ENGLAND

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire)

New York, Nov. 2.—The ending of influence of profit taking and of reumption of buying for the long account caused the stock market to waver for a time after the opening today but before trading had been long under way, the movement became definitely upward. The demand was steady and well diversified, although the buying was hardly as active as yesterday, owing to the fact that the most pressing requirements for covering short contracts had been satisfied. Prices were raised steadily until Union Pacific had been marked up to 188, Lehigh Valley to 171,

Reading to 142 1-4, United States

Steel to 59 5-8 and American Smelting to 69 1-8. The figures were one to two points above yesterday's closing and reflected the urgency of the demand from the professional contingent.

Purchases for both accounts were extensive in all the speculative favorites and there was an unquestioned air of confidence in the buying. On a fractional reaction shortly before noon the market became quiet.

Bonds were firm with some substi-tional improvement in a few names.

American Tobacco bonds were slightly lower.

American Smelting moved up in an buoyant fashion, advancing 3½ points over yesterday's close. Improved trade prospects and a drive by investors against a vulnerable short interest accounted for the boom in the stock. Other copper stocks were materially higher in sympathy. Railroad stocks ruled slightly below their nest prices of the morning.

London was estimated to have sold fully 25,000 shares, largely in United States steel.

Prices did not change much in the mid-afternoon.

There was always enough realizing in stocks to keep the movement in moderate limits. C. Union Pacific crossed 168 and a general hardening occurred elsewhere, but the list sagged again before 2 o'clock. United States steel falling back to 58 1-8.

The close was heavy.

NEW YORK METALS

New York, Nov. 2.—Copper, $11.95

MASSACRE OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN VERIFIED

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire)

Peking, Nov. 2.—The German legation today received a wireless message from the vicinity of Hankow stating that the imperial forces are burning the native city of Hankow, and confirming yesterday's report that the imperial troops massacred men, women and children, during several days' fighting.

It is evident that the Manchu soldiers are infuriated over earlier Chiinese successes and they have got out of hand of officers.

KEY TO DR. HELEN KNABE'S ROOM FOUND ON TABLE

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 2.—Though the police had persistently and unsuccessfully searched for the key of the flat of Dr. Helene Knabe, found dead in her room a week ago, the administrator of her estate found it this afternoon on top of her dressing table. The police declared the key had been placed on the table since their last search. The only other persons known to have keys to the apartment they say were Mrs.

McPherson and Miss Augusta Knabe.

DENVER NEGRO PLEASED

(UNWRITTEN LAW: TREED)

Denver, Colo., Nov. 2.—The "unwritten law" covers black as well as white, according to a verdict of acquittal granted James J. Manuel by a local jury today.

Manuel, a negro, shot and killed

Rev. Alexander Edwards, pastor of his church, a month ago after the latter had confessed to a larceny with

Mrs. Manuel. Counsel for Manuel practically ignored Manuel's plea of self defense and argued from the standpoint of the "unwritten law."

Chicago.

After a careful inspection tour of the lines of the company from San Diego to Point Richmond, Brewer is prepared to submit to the general officials of the company in Chicago a detailed report of the needs of the company. What his recommendations will be is not known, but that they will comprise all of the improvements spoken of above and many more necessities is a certainty.

General Superintendent L. L. Hibbard, who is now in the east, is expected to return within a short time with plans for improvement of the passenger service on the western coast.

General Manager W. H. Brewer, of the company, stated that his corporation was preparing to rehabilitate its system, but was unable to go into details of the
